

SHAKESPEARE LIVES IN SCHOOLS DAY

↳ O THIS LEARNING,
WHAT A THING IT IS!

↳ THE TAMING OF THE SHREW ACT 1 SCENE 2

SHAKESPEARE LIVES IN SCHOOLS DAY

FRIDAY 2 DECEMBER 2016

Half the world's pupils study Shakespeare. What does he mean to you and your pupils? The British Council invites you to join in a global celebration of Shakespeare on this special 400th anniversary year!

IT'S FREE TO GET INVOLVED! HERE'S HOW:

- Download 20 activity ideas for your school to do
- Print out Shakespeare masks for students to wear
- Pass around printable cards with famous Shakespeare quotations
- Hold an assembly using our ready-made PowerPoint presentation and challenge your students to tell the difference between Twelfth Night and Justin Bieber
- Download our Shakespeare teaching resource developed with the Royal Shakespeare Company
- Screen our new short film of Macbeth with contributions from schools all over the world

Resources are available on Schools Online

schoolsonline.britishcouncil.org/shakespeare-lives-schools-day

Tell us how you are celebrating Shakespeare Lives in Schools Day:

 @Schools_On_Line #shakespearelives

 @SchoolsOnline.BritishCouncil #ShakespeareLives

 @ShakespeareLives #ShakespeareLives

shakespearelives@britishcouncil.org

Cut the Shakespeare mask out, colour it in and put it on a stick to complete your costume